THE MANAGER

EDWARD MICHAEL (EDDIE) KASKO

Born: June 27, 1931, Linden, N. J. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Richmond, Va. Married Catherine Bache, February 15, 1958. Children: Michael 8/10/59, James 4/30/63. Acquired by Red Sox, April 3, 1966 for Felix Mantilla from Houston.

This is Eddie's third season directing the Red Sox fortunes after third place finishes in the American League East in 1970 and 1971. In both years, the Red Sox challenged early but didn't have the staying power to match the Orioles. Kasko managed three seasons in triple A baseball in the Red Sox farm system before he succeeded Dick Williams in Boston. He finished sixth with Toronto in 1967, sixth with Louisville in 1968 and second with Louisville in 1969.

He accepted the Red Sox minor league managing position after a ten-year major league career with the Cardinals, Reds, Astros and Red Sox, highlighted as Cincinnati's Most Valuable Player in 1960, a member of the Reds pennant winning team in 1961, and Houston's first captain in 1965.

Eddie became a professional player with Baltimore of the International League in 1949 after graduating from high school in New Jersey. After six minor league seasons, interrupted by two years as a combat engineer in the Army, he came to the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1957.

THE COACHES

EDWARD J. (EDDIE) POPOWSKI

Born: Aug. 20, 1913 at Sayreville, N. J. Ht.: 5'4"; Wt.: 155 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Married Mary Joan Howley, Dec. 26, 1941. Children: Carole 4/7/43, Terry 7/22/45, Rickey 9/15/52, Randy 8/8/54, Sherry 9/10/57.

"Pop" is in his sixth season as the Red Sox third base coach, after spending over 30 years in the Red Sox minor league system as second baseman, scout, manager and coach. In his 21 years as a minor league manager, his clubs finished out of the first division in all leagues only seven times and he led four pennant winners, the latest in 1965 when he managed Pittsfield to the Eastern League title. He also managed the Red Sox team in the Florida Instructional League for several years before accepting the major league coaching position. Prior to becoming a professional, he was a member of the famed touring "House of David" bearded team of the early 1930's.

DONALD EUGENE (DON) LENHARDT

Born: Oct. 4, 1922 at Alton, Ill. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 190. Green eyes, Blond hair. Home: St. Louis, Mo. Married Isabel Fracchia, Oct. 27, 1951. Children: Patricia Ann, 10/7/52.

This is Don's third year as Red Sox first base coach and batting instructor, after serving as a scout for the club in Missouri, Illinois and Iowa and a special minor league spring training instructor for many years. A Navy veteran of World War II, he played five major league seasons as an outfielder, first baseman and third baseman with the St. Louis Browns, White Sox, Red Sox and Tigers before becoming a scout in 1957.

DOUGLAS JOSEPH (DOUG) CAMILLI

Born: Sept. 22, 1936, Philadelphia, Pa. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Winter Haven, Fla. Married Marilyn Mumm, Oct. 19, 1963. Children: Kevin 6/30/64, Jeffrey 7/10/66, Michael 7/25/67.

One of four baseball-playing sons of former major league star Dolph Camilli, Doug is back for his third year as bullpen coach. He came to Boston after an eight-year major league career with the Dodgers and Washington, and two seasons as Senators' bullpen coach. The highlight of his five-year career with the Dodgers was catching Sandy Koufax in one of his four no-hitters, vs. Philadelphia on June 4, 1964.

ALBERT LEE (LEE) STANGE

Born: October 27, 1936, Chicago, Ill. Ht.: 5'10"; Wt.: 170 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Bloomington, Minn. Married Diane Dahl. Children: Tim 9/3/64, Jim 3/22/67, Jana 5/15/68.

"Stinger" takes over this year because last year's pitching coach, Harvey Haddix, reluctantly resigned because of personal and family reasons. Lee becomes the fourth pitching leader for the Red Sox in the last four years.

Lee pitched 10 years in the major leagues with the Twins, the Indians, the Red Sox and White Sox, and last year served as a Red Sox minor league pitching instructor. His career record of 62 wins and 61 defeats included several "clutch" performances with the pennant-winning Red Sox of 1967, also five wins and 11 saves as Boston's top reliever in 1968. In 1969 he was selected "Man of the Year" by the BoSox Club of Boston, and he finished his active career with Chicago in 1970.

PLAYER RECORDS

APARICIO, Luis Ernesto (Luis)

SHORTSTOP

Born: April 29, 1934, Maracaibo, Venezuela. Ht.: 5'8"; Wt. 162 lbs. Blue eyes. Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Maracaibo, Venezuela. Married Sonia M. Llorente; children: Louis 5/24/57, Sonia 6/29/58, Sharon 11/24/60, Karen 6/14/64, Nelson 11/3/65.

A 0-for-44 early season slump last year and a few aggravating injuries caused this amazing veteran's batting average to drop 81 points from his career high of 1970, but he won everyone's admiration because of his quiet and professional handling of his problems. After resting all winter from baseball, Luis is determined to make a comeback in 1972.

He has already established himself as the most durable shortstop in history with 2,340 games, eclipsing Luke Appling's previous record of 2,218. His fielding accomplishments are legend as the American League's Gold Glove shortstop nine times, and he also led the league in stolen bases nine consecutive seasons.

Luis appeared in the World Series with Chicago in 1959 and with Baltimore in 1966 and has been named to the American League All-Star team nine years. Luis' late father was a great shortstop in Venezuela and his 14-year-old son is regarded as another great future prospect.

This young prospect has had limited experience, with arm problems hampering his progress in 1970 and military service interrupting his 1971 season, but he had an impressive 5-3 record with a 2.16 ERA in the Florida Instructional League to earn a spot on the major league roster. Tall and lean, he has a good moving fast ball and sharp breaking curve, but will need more minor league experience. He was MVP with Carson High School before signing with the Red Sox in 1969.

One of several promising members of "Kasko's Kiddy Korps" who impressed last September with the Red Sox, after being rated the best shortstop prospect of 1971 in the International League with Louisville. Juan is expected to be the Red Sox shortstop of the future as an outstanding fielder with a strong but sometimes inaccurate arm, and he will have the added benefits of Aparicio's tutoring during spring training. An excellent bunter with exceptional speed, he is a line drive hitter, who hit well this winter in the Puerto Rican winter league.

He was signed by the late Pedro Vasquez after starring at all levels of baseball in San Sebastian, P.R., and has moved rapidly up the minor league ladder.

BOLIN, Bobby Donald (Bo)

PITCHER

Born: January 29, 1939 at Hickory Grove, S. C. Ht.: 6'4"; Wt.: 215 lbs. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: York, S.C. Married Irene White. Children: Donna 7/13/64; Brettly 9/14/66.

Bob led the Red Sox bullpen crew in appearances in 1971 and was the right handed workhorse especially after Ken Tatum was injured. Since joining the Red Sox on September 10, 1970, he has put together an impressive 7-3 record with eight saves, in both long and short relief.

Through his previous years with the Giants and Milwaukee he had worked both as a starter and reliever. At Hickory Grove High School he played baseball, basketball and football, and pitched four no hitters in his senior year before signing with the Pirates. Through a technicality he was later declared a free agent and signed with the Giants. On his way to a 20-8 record in 1959 with Eugene, he had a 22 strikeout game. His brother, Joe, played briefly in the Baltimore farm system.

COOPER, Cecil Celester (Flash)*FIRST BASEMAN

Born: December 20, 1949, Brenham, Texas. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 175 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Brenham, Texas. Signed by scout Dave Philley, June 14, 1968. Single.

He may well hold the key to the Red Sox fortunes in 1972 as the regular first baseman. Cecil's speed and hitting make him an outstanding prospect, but he will be making a big jump from AA ball to the majors. Another member of last September's "Kiddy Korps", when he batted .310, he also improved his fielding with special tutoring in the Florida Instructional League.

He was drafted away from the Red Sox by the Cardinals after leading the Midwest League in hitting in 1970, and was the last player cut by St. Louis last spring and had to be tendered back to Boston.

Cecil was an All-Star at every baseball level in Brenham and a member of two state high school champions before signing in 1968. He attends Prairie View A&M College in the offseason.

a-Drafted from Red Sox by St. Louis Cardinals in major league draft, December 3, 1970. Returned to Red Sox, April 5, 1971, for half of purchase price of $25,000 when Cards couldn't keep him on their major league club.

CULP, Raymond Leonard, Jr. (Ray)*PITCHER

Born: August 6, 1941, Elgin, Texas. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 202 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Austin, Texas. Married Sharon Lee Mullins. Children: Mitzi 7/18/64, Sherri 12/7/66, Tammi 3/30/70.

Ray's four-year Red Sox record now stands at 64-44, even though he had arm problems in late August of 1971 which resulted in his first Boston losing record. Once again, however, he led the club in complete games, tying with Siebert with 12, and for the fourth year in a row led the club in innings pitched and strikeouts.

In all four years with the club, it should be noted, he has been victimized by sloppy defense plus the fact that he has had fewer runs to work with than other starters. In 1968, 69 and 70, he won the Red Sox Most Valuable Pitcher award, and with his quiet determination, the betting is that he will again overcome the arm problems for another winning season in 1972.

He operates a small ranch in Austin, Texas, where he starred in football, track and baseball in high school before signing with the Phillies.

A standout in high school on Long Island, he was Cleveland's number one selection in the June draft of 1966. He chose to attend Clemson University where he was undefeated as a freshman and pitched three no-hitters. Starred briefly in the Cape Cod college league in 1967 and then became the first U. S. pitcher to beat Cuba when the U. S. team won the gold medal in the Pan American games.

Signed with the Red Sox after his sophomore year at Clemson, where he later earned his degree in English. Worked as a sportswriter in Spartanburg this winter.

Rated a sure future major league prospect, Dwight needs only a little more experience with the bat to come up to stay. His 1971 manager, Don Lock, says he is a major league outfielder right now, and he followed a solid season at Winston-Salem with an even more impressive fall as one of the leading hitters in the Instructional League, with a .318 average and up among the league leaders in home runs and RBI's.

He starred at every level of baseball and climaxed a great amateur career as batting champion and most valuable player in the Los Angeles area at Chatsworth High before being selected high in the 1969 draft and signing. He was a flanker in high school football for two years.

For the past two years, Mike has seen limited action as a pinch hitter and late inning fill-in at first base, but with the departure of George Scott, he will be dueling Cooper for the regular first base job. A superior fielder, he demonstrated surprising power last spring training as the club's second leading home run hitter with six.

Originally signed by the Mets, he was acquired by Baltimore in the first year draft, and his fine credentials in the Oriole minor league system caused the Kansas City Royals to make him their second selection in the expansion draft of 1968.

Mike is a department store supervisor in the off-season on Long Island.

"Pudge", as he has been known from childhood, made a great comeback in 1971 from a disappointing previous season, and was ranked the best catcher in the International League.

An excellent receiver, with good speed and a fine arm, he was MVP in baseball, basketball and soccer at Charlestown, N. H. High before signing.

GARMAN, Michael D. (Mike)*PITCHER

Born: Sept. 16, 1949, Caldwell, Idaho. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 210 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Wilder, Idaho. Signed by Scout Earl Johnson after being the Red Sox number one draft selection in June, 1967. Married Linda Lee Lanfear. Children: Greg 4/20/67.

Only the need to improve his maturity, confidence and pitching control have kept Mike from realizing his full potential. He has improved gradually each year and pitched this winter in Puerto Rico, trying to get his exceptional fast ball over the plate and improve his breaking pitches, and he might break through in 1972.

Before the Red Sox selected him in the draft, he was not only MVP in baseball at Caldwell (Idaho) High but also made All-State teams in football and basketball. His father played in the Pirates farm system and his brother is in the Giants minor league system.

Born: June 4, 1947, South Gate, Calif. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 165 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Married Nancy Lynn Harp. Children: Natalie 3/16/69, Douglas 1/29/71.

Doug was the runaway choice as Red Sox "Rookie of the Year" for 1971 and would have been a strong contender for league rookie honors except for a back condition which idled him a great deal. He lived up to expectations as a fielder with only nine errors all season and turned the double play better than Fenway Park fans have seen in many years. He worked this past winter on special strengthening exercises with trainer Buddy LeRoux, along with his ticket promotion duties for the Red Sox, and the results were good. He should be a long time fixture at second base in Boston.

He signed with the Angels after starring as a four-letter athlete at El Monte (Calif.) High in 1965, and had his minor league career interrupted with Navy service in 1967 and 1968. In those years, he helped lead the Honolulu Islanders to Hawaii championships and berths in the National Baseball Congress tournament in Wichita, where they finished second in 1967.

HARPER, Tommy (Tommy)

OUTFIELDER-INFIELDER

Born: October 14, 1940, Oak-Grove, La. Ht.: 5'9"; Wt.: 160 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Berkeley, Calif. Married Bonnie Jean Williams.

One of the key players in the multiple deal between the Red Sox and Milwaukee during the 1971 World Series, Tommy gives the club the leadoff hitter with power and speed it has missed in recent years, and is slated to be the regular centerfielder.

His 73 stolen bases in 1969 were the most in an American League season since Ty Cobb swiped 96 in 1915. He was on the American League All-Star team in 1970 and he became one of only five players who have hit 30 home runs and stolen 30 bases in the same season.

Before signing with Cincinnati in 1960, he had been All-League in baseball, football and basketball at both Encinal (Calif.) High and Santa Rosa Junior College, and then batted .507 as MVP at San Francisco State College. Tommy becomes the best base stealing threat the Red Sox have had since the days of the immortal Tris Speaker.

Buddy is a steadily-improving player, who had his first taste of the major leagues when he was called up last July to strengthen the bench in Griffin's absence. He impressed everyone with his hustle and desire, but needs more hitting experience to be ready for fulltime major league duty.

In 1970 he was the All-Eastern League second baseman. Signed with the Red Sox after being selected high in the 1969 draft out of Pershing Junior College and since has obtained his degree from the University of Nebraska.

JOSEPHSON, Duane Charles (Josie)*CATCHER

Born: June 3, 1942, New Hampton, Iowa. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 195 lbs. Brown eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: New Hampton, Iowa. Married Nancy Lea Freeman. Children: Terri 12/6/61, Suzanne 7/8/63, Jeff 10/28/65, Julie 12/8/68, Kristine 12/18/69.

"Josie's" acquisition late in spring training of 1971 was the spark that kept the Red Sox in contention a good part of the season. The Red Sox were 15 games over .500 (50 wins, 35 losses) in games that he started.

Although he was injured several times during the season, he demonstrated to Boston fans that most of his injuries were caused by hard-nosed play and he survived some of the most violent home plate and base path collisions seen in Fenway Park in many years.

A Little All-America selection in baseball in 1964, while playing for State College of Iowa, he had previously been an All-State quarterback at New Hampton High. In professional ball, he was the All-Star catcher in the Southern League in 1965, and MVP of the Pacific Coast League in 1966.

He earned the well-deserved nickname "Super Sub" in 1971, and was so honored by the Boston Writers this past winter for his outstanding play at third, second and short and his clutch hitting, finishing third on the club. John has now established himself as one of the most valuable utility players in the American League.

He was a three-year standout in football, basketball and baseball at Harper High in Chicago before signing with Washington in 1961. Later, after being traded to Los Angeles in the deal which brought Frank Howard to Washington, he appeared with the Dodgers in the World Series of 1965 and 1966. Has the distinction of hitting a home run his first time at bat in the majors in 1962 and had an inside the park homer his first time at bat for the Red Sox in 1970.

John was another member of the Red Sox ticket promotion crew last winter.

KRAUSSE, Lewis Bernard Jr. (Lew)*PITCHER

Born: April 25, 1943, Chester, Pa. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 186. Blue eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Kansas City, Mo. Married Susan Wickersham. Children: Kurt 6/18/70.

The Red Sox regard Lew as the real key to the multi-player deal with Milwaukee last fall because of his strong finish with the Brewers in 1971. All reports indicate that with maturity and experience he is now ready to fulfill the promise he showed when as a raw rookie of 18 he pitched a three-hit shutout over the Angels on June 16, 1961, right after his father had signed him to a bonus contract with the Kansas City Athletics. He'll get a chance to move into the starting rotation, and will also be a long reliever.

Lew signed and came to the majors after a brilliant amateur career from Little League up, climaxed as a three-time All-State selection at Chester (Pa.) High, where he also earned letters in football and basketball. His father had a long career in the Philadelphia Athletics system under Connie Mack, including two years in the major leagues in the early 1930's. Lew was Milwaukee's player representative last year.

He lost most of the 1970 season on military duty, but pitched in the Puerto Rico winter league to get ready for 1971.

He signed with the Red Sox after a four-year 38-8 record at the University of Southern California, followed by two wins on consecutive days for the 1968 Trojan collegiate champions. From Little League up he had also played first base when he wasn't pitching. Following his degree from USC in 1969, Bill took graduate courses this past winter at the University of So. Mississippi.

The Red Sox had only ONE 1971 date in which they drew fewer than 10,000 fans (4/28, Wed. afternoon vs. Milwaukee: 4,437) and ended up leading the American League in attendance for the fourth time in the last five years with 1,678,732.

LYLE, Albert W. (Sparky)*PITCHER

Born: July 22, 1944, Dubois, Pa. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 194 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Danvers, Mass. Married Judy Ann Fusco. Children: Dane 7/5/68.

Sparky bounced back from a poor season in 1970 to re-establish himself as one of baseball's best short left-handed relievers, with 16 saves to go with his six wins. In four and a half major league seasons, he now has 63 saves, and has proven equally effective at home or on the road.

Because his high school (Reynoldsville, Pa.) did not field a baseball team, he played only football and basketball, but he came to Baltimore's attention when he struck out 31 men in a 17-inning sandlot game. The Red Sox got him as a first year draft pick.

a—Drafted by Red Sox from Rochester (Orioles), Nov. 30, 1964.

MAGGARD, Thomas Lee (Tom)*CATCHER

Born: Feb. 7, 1950, San Gabriel, Calif. Ht.: 6'6"; Wt.: 225 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Norwalk, Calif. Signed by Joe Stephenson, as Red Sox number one draft pick, June, 1968. Single.

A big, strong receiver who will need more minor league seasoning, Tom has shown improvement in each of his three years in the Red Sox system. Although he has power, he must learn the strike zone and work on his catching to make it to the majors.

One of Southern California's greatest high school basketball players at John Glenn High, he turned down a basketball scholarship at Southern California to sign. He was a catcher and pitcher in youth league baseball, but played mostly the outfield in high school.

Lynn is another in the group of fine young pitching prospects coming up from Louisville and will be in his third Red Sox spring training camp. After two years with the Red Sox instructional team, he spent the past winter pitching in Puerto Rico. Scouting reports indicate he has the pitches, but needs better rhythm for consistency.

He was a great all-round athlete at Grambling (La.) High, where he earned 16 letters in baseball, football, basketball and tennis, before being selected third by the Red Sox in the 1968 free agent draft.

Rick is another member of the Kiddy Korps who impressed in September in all departments with the Red Sox and he will have an excellent chance to stay in Boston in 1972. The Red Sox number two selection in June, 1969, he jumped right into double A baseball and he has all the tools of a great fielding outfielder.

After a standout career as a pitcher-outfielder through Union High in Grand Rapids, he went on to win the Big Ten batting title in 1969 as an outfielder at Michigan State, where he received his degree this past winter. He also starred in football and basketball in high school.

It took nine years of battling his way through the minors, but Monty made it to stay in Fenway Park in 1971. Early in the season, he got sidetracked with the acquisition of Josephson, but was ready in late May when needed and wound up dividing the catching duties. He was the International League All-Star catcher in 1969 and 1970, which indicates his determination because the Red Sox had converted him to catching.

All his amateur experience had been as a pitcher, first baseman and outfielder. He starred in baseball, basketball and football at Central High of Nashville before signing. A licensed pilot, he was a valuable member of the Red Sox ticket promotion group last winter.

Ready for a regular spot in the rotation and future stardom, Roger has just completed a sensational winter in Puerto Rico as the league's leading pitcher (14-1) and Most Valuable Player. After an early visit in May of 1971, he came back to stay with the Red Sox in August, and signaled he was ready by winning four of his last five starts and closed with a four-hit shutout over Washington.

Tall and wiry, he has a good moving fast ball, sharp breaking curve and keeps the hitters off balance. In Puerto Rico he showed exceptional control, after having control trouble in earlier years. He was signed by the late Pedro Vasquez after graduation from Rafael Landron High in 1967.

Mike will have to work extra hard to get back to his winning ways of 1969, when he had the best winning percentage in baseball and was runner-up as the American League "Rookie of the Year". He was a major disappointment early in 1971 and had to be sent to Louisville, where he struggled to regain his confidence. This will be the key for him in 1972.

He grew up right near Yankee Stadium and played all sports at St. Helena High before signing.

Ben showed much improvement with the bat in 1971 and was another exciting member of September's Kiddy Korps at Fenway Park. Another youngster with exceptional speed, he led the International League with 26 assists last year, indicating his range in the outfield. He must rate a solid chance in 1972 after a fine winter season in Venezuela.

Born: April 6, 1943, Charleston, Ill. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 180 lbs. Hazel eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Charleston, Ill. Married Vera Ann Replogle. Children: Jon 5/29/67, Jeff 5/10/71.

After two straight 14-win seasons with the lowly Brewers, Marty was one of the most sought after pitchers in the trade marts following the 1971 season. A battler on the mound, he could become a 20-game winner with Red Sox run production and better defense behind him.

At Charleston High in Illinois he pitched three no-hitters. Pattin went on to Eastern Illinois University, where he had a 10-1 senior year record and made second team All-America before being drafted by the Angels. Milwaukee selected him in the expansion draft after he spent the 1968 season as a California reliever. He has a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in industrial arts from Eastern Illinois and also has taken other graduate courses at Arizona State in the off-season.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Red Sox were in first place 37 straight days (April 28 through June 4) and, except for one day, were never more than 6½ games out of first place until August. On Aug. 2 Bill Lee's two-hit shutout relief pitching for 8½ innings lifted the Red Sox to a 7-4 win in Baltimore, moving the club to within 4½ games of the Orioles. Two days later the team appeared headed toward another win in Baltimore — which would have put Boston just 3½ games back — but the Orioles scored two runs after two were out in the 9th inning to tie the game and won it 5-4 in the 10th. The Red Sox proceeded to lose 10 of their next 12 games and 16 of 21 to drop out of contention.

PETERS, Gary Charles (Pete)*PITCHER

Born: April 21, 1937, Grove City, Pa. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 202 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Sarasota, Fla. Married Jean Ann Jackal. Children: Kelly 9/26/58, Susan 11/19/59.

Although he was hit harder last year than any previous major league season, Gary again managed a winning Red Sox season as a regular member of the starting rotation. In 1972, it's likely he will be a spot starter and long reliever, and will be used also as one of the key pinch hitters (.278 PH average in 1971).

He had a great career with the White Sox before coming to Boston, as Rookie of the Year in 1963, an All-Star in 1964 and 1967, and pitching a White Sox record-tying 11 straight wins in 1963.

The White Sox scouted him as a sandlot first baseman because his high school did not have a baseball team. He was an All-State choice in basketball, and went on to major in mathematics at Grove City College after signing. He is the Red Sox player representative as he was in Chicago.

Rico made the switch to third base with a minimum of difficulty in 1971 and kept his bat production up. He was the club leader with 12 game-winning hits. Over the last three years he has hit more home runs, 97, and has more RBI's, 289, than any other member of the Red Sox. Although, as he admits, he had trouble coming in from third on bunts and rollers, he set a major league record for third basemen of 77 straight games without an error. A hard winter conditioning program to reduce his weight should improve his quickness.

His 40 home runs in 1969 broke a 20-year-old A.L. record for homers by a shortstop and he has been among the league slugging leaders in the past three years. Rico was an All-Scholastic in both baseball and basketball at Sheepshead Bay (N.Y.) High before signing.

POLE, Richard Henry (Dick)*PITCHER

Born: October 13, 1950, Trout Creek, Mich. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Hazel eyes, Red hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Trout Creek, Mich. Signed by Scout Maurice DeLoof, August 3, 1968. Single.

All observers like this powerful young pitcher's future as a major league starter, because he has shown steady improvement over the last three seasons. A rainout cost Dick a chance to pitch for the Red Sox in an exhibition game vs. Montreal last summer, but it shouldn't be too long before his good fastball and curve will be on display regularly at Fenway Park.

He signed out of Trout Creek High where he also was an All-State selection in basketball.

Born: January 14, 1937, St. Mary's, Mo. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 205 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: St. Louis, Mo. Married Carol Ann Buckner. Children: Sandi 8/3/59, Scott 10/20/60, Steve 3/14/69, Sherri 8/2/71.

Sonny was easily Boston's Most Valuable Pitcher in 1971. His 16 wins matched two previous high seasons with Cleveland and he had a career high 12 complete games, despite not pitching after Sept. 13. He was sensational against Baltimore, both pitching and hitting. In four starts, he was 4-0 with a 0.76 ERA, allowing them only three runs in the four games, while he contributed four homers and 11 RBI's personally.

Late in the season, he had some problems with arm tightness, and it was decided that he should rest for the remainder of the season. He expects no problems in 1972.

Sonny signed with the Indians as a first baseman-outfielder, after hitting .400 in the College World Series of 1958 for the University of Missouri, and being selected a third team All-America first baseman. Earlier in his career, he had been a shortstop, and he became a full-time pitcher in 1960.

DID YOU KNOW?

It was a starting pitcher, not a reliever, who appeared in the most games for the Red Sox in 1971. You say that can't be? Sparky Lyle appeared in 50 games and Bob Bolin 52 but Gary Peters was in one more game than Bolin. He accomplished that by appearing 19 times as a pinch hitter (5-for-18 = .278, 2 homers, 6 RBIs).

Pat was the Phillies number one selection in the secondary phase of the January 1967 draft out of the University of Utah. Earlier he had been a member of two Bakersfield High champion baseball teams, and a high school All-America halfback on a team which won 27 straight games between 1964 and 1966.

Reggie was selected by the Boston Writers as the Red Sox MVP of 1971, leading the club offensively in almost every category with career highs in homers (30) and RBI's (96). A fine all-around athlete, he simply gets better and better and is definitely one of the brightest young stars in the league with a still-greater future ahead.

A three-sport star at Centennial High in Los Angeles, he also played Little League baseball with major leaguers Don Wilson and Dave Nelson. Reg was drafted from the Twins as an infielder but his powerful arm was more suited to the outfield. He was the International League batting champion in 1966. In recent off-seasons he has become deeply involved in drug education work with youngsters and develops prize quarter horses as a hobby.

Ken was living up to his reputation as one of the best right-handed short relievers in baseball into late May, with a 2-2 record and six saves, when he was struck in the face by a pre-game fungo line drive and was sidelined a month with a fractured cheekbone. He never did regain his early effectiveness, so 1971 must be classed as a disappointing season for him. However, for less than three full major league seasons, he shows a remarkable 48 saves and 16 wins in relief.

Always a good hitter, he was also an outfielder in amateur baseball, before becoming a high draft pick out of Mississippi State by California in 1966. Nine of his teammates, including Del Unser, were drafted from that college team.

TIANT, Luis Clemente (Luis)

PITCHER

Born: November 23, 1940, Havana, Cuba. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Colonia Viaducto, Mex. Married Maria Del Refugio Navarro. Children: Luis, 9, Isabel, 4.

The 1971 season was certainly mixed up for Luis, a 21-game winner with a 1.60 ERA for Cleveland in 1968. He had a disappointing spring with Minnesota and was released. The Braves picked him up but he obtained his release from that organization after 30 days, and hooked on with Louisville. He showed enough there to be brought to Boston, where he had trouble as a starter because of early inning wildness, but showed a 1-1 record out of the bullpen and a 1.80 ERA. This winter he pitched a no-hitter in Venezuela and may be ready for a comeback as a long reliever.

Luis followed in the footsteps of his father who pitched for the New York Cuban professional team. He still holds the American League record for most strikeouts (19) in a 10-inning game, set in 1968.

Terry gets his second chance in the Red Sox major league camp, after a so-so season in AA ball. At times, he has shown enough to rate a chance, but must become more aggressive to come to the major leagues to stay.

He was an All-State selection in baseball and basketball, and also starred in football at West High of Davenport before signing.

YASTRZEMSKI, Carl Michael (Yaz)

OUTFIELDER

Born: Aug. 22, 1939, Southampton, L. I., N. Y. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 182 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Lynnfield, Mass. Signed by Scout Bots Nekola, Nov. 28, 1958. Married Carolann Casper. Children: Mary Ann 9/21/60, C. Michael Jr. 8/16/61, Suzann 6/15/66, Carolyn 4/15/69.

An 11-year veteran now, and one of baseball's superstars, Yaz is determined to come back from his poorest season of 1971. Hampered by a hand injury that never completely healed, he dropped off from his best season to his worst with the bat, but still won his sixth Gold Glove as the best left fielder in the game. He also set a major league record for outfielders as his 16 assists topped the A. L. in that category for an unprecedented sixth time.

A three-time batting champion and MVP in 1967 when he led the Red Sox to the "Impossible Dream" pennant, his 106 walks in 1971 were second only to Killebrew, and his 454 walks in the last four years are high for the league, another indicator of the respect he commands from rival pitchers.

An infielder in high school, Yaz signed with the Red Sox after his freshman year at Notre Dame, and later earned his degree from Merrimack College in Massachusetts. Despite his other off-season commitments as an associate in a Boston investing firm, director of a bank, and operating his own automobile dealership, he still found considerable time to spend on drug education work in schools in New England.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE — A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . The winter meeting is conducted by conference phone . . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (June 10) and Winter (last Saturday of January) . . .

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase — Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either graduated or become 21 years of age . . . Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA and AA rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase — Selection of free agents who had been drafted previously but who had not signed contracts before the negotiation right expired (except those draftees who had enrolled in a four-year college and had since graduated or become 21 years of age — now drafted in Regular Phase) . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with the express written consent of that player . . . The order of selection is by lot with the 24 major league clubs divided into two 12-team groups with the groups alternating having first selections in respective drafts.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a pre-arranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) . . .

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8 . . .

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall now be considered a suspended game and will be resumed at the point of suspension.

Major League Waivers .....	June 15	Last Day of Season
League Waivers (assignor's league) .....	Last Day of Season	4 Days After End of World Series

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: To qualify as a Rookie a player may not have spent more than 45 days on a big league roster between cutdown dates (the first day of season and Aug. 31), AND may not have exceeded 90 official at bats or 45 innings pitched at major league level.

SAVE RULE — Credit a save to a relief pitcher who enters the game with his team in the lead if he holds the lead the remainder of the game, provided he is not credited with the victory. A relief pitcher cannot be credited with a save if he does not finish the game, unless he is removed for a pinch hitter or runner. When more than one relief pitcher qualifies for a save under the provisions of this rule, credit the save to the relief pitcher judged by the scorer to have been the most effective. Only one save can be credited in any game.

PLAYER LIMITS — 25 players from opening day through August 31 . . . 40 players from September 1 through end of season . . . Players in military service do not count against the under control list while on active duty. Upon separation from the service, a player will be reinstated to his club's normal player limits after he has completed a 15-day trial period or has participated in a championship game, whichever comes first.

DEFINITION OF NIGHT GAME — Any game scheduled to start after 6 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6 p.m. and is delayed for any reason, it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 6:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Two-night double-headers shall be included in doubleheader statistics and shall be considered two night games. When afternoon and night games (separate admissions) are played on the same date, the games shall be day and night and count as single games.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CURFEW RULE — All night games must be called at 1 a.m. local time. But if an inning is started prior to 1 a.m. city time, it can be completed.
